

Beauty Measured in Years

Built in the mid 80's this home has all the creature comforts of today's modern society. The home is a mix of brick & weather board, two story with internal access downstairs. Back verandahs on both levels with views & breezes over the Yandina township. The home has three large bedrooms. Two up stairs & one downstairs. Two way bathroom into the main bedroom upstairs with another bathroom & the laundry downstairs. Open-plan living upstairs with a combined kitchen, dinning & lounge with air-con for the warmer months and a fireplace for the cooler months. The kitchen has a 900 mm gas cook-top, electric oven, integrated fridge space & plenty of cupboard space looking over the back deck.

Downstairs there is a separate large media/ second lounge room or games room with a huge built-in storage area. The land size is a great 1032 sq m or just over a quarter of an acre. Side access around the house to get into the backyard and plenty of room for a pool or shed.
