3A Carnival Street, Yandina

Dual Living Opportunity

Sitting on the outskirts of Yandina township but close enough to walk to town & the popular local markets is this steel framed highset hardy plank home on 992 sq m with views to Mt Ninderry. Full length 4 metre wide east & north facing verandahs with aluminium rails catch the valley breezes. Polished timber floors throughout the home with higher than average ceilings makes the home open, spacious and airy. The home has three bedrooms with good separation from the main bedroom. All have built-in cupboards with a walk-in robe for the main, ensuite and a brand new air-conditioner. The home has two living areas separated by a study nook with it's own deck. The laundry is huge and includes a kitchenette flowing from the second living area. Could easily be made into dual living. The kitchen has a gas cook-top with an electric wall oven, dishwasher provision, huge pantry, double fridge space & extensive timber features. The main bathroom has a shower and separate bath with the second toilet also separate. Outside you will find a nice paved private entertainment area surrounded in tropical gardens making this area a lovely spot to relax. Concreted two car accommodation under the home with a separate lockup storage room/workshop.
